The Cranbrook-Kingswood Dance program concentrates on modern/contemporary dance technique and composition work in a non-competitive environment. Students have opportunities to explore and develop their creativity and find their voice through artistic expression. The dancers participate in at least three performances a year, such as the Winter Festival Concert and the Evening of Dance. Students also have an opportunity to present their original choreography at the Strickland Choreography Competition where a panel of three professionals in the dance field select a winning piece. Cranbrook dancers are often invited to perform as guests with professional dance companies. The Cranbrook Kingswood dance department maintains a chapter in the National Dance Honor Society (NHSDA) and has had two students named as honorable mentions in the NHSDA Artistic Merit, Leadership and Academic Achievement Award, one of the highest honor programs for dance in the United States.

Inner-Action Dance, founded by Sharon Kang, started the dance training program in Michigan in 2009. Sharon is a choreographer and director for many dance and competition events. Inner-Action Dance serves dancers of all talent levels by offering an Inspiring, Professional and Fun learning environment experience. All of our dance instructors are personable and fully certified. Classes spanning several genres including: Ballet, Jazz, Lyrical, Contemporary, Tap, K-Pop, Performing/Competition Dance Teams, Acro Dance, Turns & Leaps, Technique & Flexibility, Chinese Cultural Dance, Creative Movement, and more.

Power Dance Company is in its Ninth Season of dance under the Executive Direction of Ryann Taylor and the Artistic Direction of Jay Jay Dixonbey, who was a contestant on Season 15 of Fox's Hit Show "So You Think You Can Dance". Power Dance Company is a regionally and nationally ranked Elite & Pre-Professional Training Company. Our Mission is to prepare our dancers for college, commercial and dance team auditions. At PDC, we focus on perfecting the craft of technique while encouraging all our dancers to explore their artistic choices. You can see some of our Power Dance Company Alumni on the fields and stages of University of Michigan, Michigan State University and on NBA courts all across the country! Our teaching staff consists of Andrew Cribbett, Christa Smutek, Jenna Hill, Jessica Eckman, Maia Dumas, Kennedy Phelps & Lauren Bobo. We are extremely excited and proud of our PDC Pre Professional Members Alyssa and Chance.. We can't wait to watch you dance beautifully. We'd like to thank Jay Jay Dixonbey for choreographing this beautiful piece entitled "The Smell Of Our Burning Flesh" & Chance's Self Choreographed piece "If I Should Lose You".
